Itinerary:

Day 1: Travel from East London on the N2 to Coffee Bay, close to Butterworth. Stop to visit two nearby waterfalls - the Gcuwa Falls and the Bowa Falls. Coffee Bay is a misty, untouched bay in the heart of the Wild Coast. Enjoy excellent fishing; spectacular walks; surfing; scuba diving; golf and an abundance of bird life in the area. A must see is the "hole in the wall", a geological marvel with the sea views between an overhanging rock with a hole large enough for a double-decker bus to fit through. Overnight in Coffee Bay on a bed and breakfast basis.

Day 2: Depart for Umtata, the capital of Transkei, and spend your day following the early footsteps of Nelson Mandela's youth at his home village, "Qunu". Enjoy your day at leisure visiting the Nelson Mandela Museum and Xhosa Villages. Here you will enjoy an insight into the traditions and customs of the Xhosa people of this region. Overnight in Umtata on a bed and breakfast basis.

Day 3: After breakfast depart for the small coastal town of Port St Johns with its unparalleled natural beauty and relaxing lifestyle. The Xhosa culture, both traditional and modern, is always apparent from the Sangoma strolling along in all his finery; the thumping sound of Kwaito music from a furniture store to dodging the ever-present voracious mini-bus taxis. This town is surrounded with wonderful sights and experiences. There is plenty to challenge the energetic traveller namely diving; climbing and trekking. Overnight in Port St. Johns on a bed and breakfast basis.

Day 4: Travel back along the N2 from Port St. Johns to East London.

4 Day Eastern Cape Political Martyr's Tour

(See Annex 8 for rates)

Back to Contents

This guided tour enables you to become part of the "City of Learning" of history, culture and political martyr's of the ANC (African National Congress), within the old Ciskei Republic in the Eastern Cape.

Routing: Port Elizabeth: Addo Elephant National Park - Grahamstown (Educational & National Arts Festival in the first week of July) - King Williams Town (Xhosa & English historical warfare's) - Hogsback (indigenous forests and waterfalls).

Itinerary:

Day 1: Depart Port Elizabeth and spend the morning visiting the Addo Elephant National Park with its wildlife including rhino, lion, buffalo and off course elephant in their natural habitat. After lunch, continue onto Grahamstown, which is known as "The City of Saints" or "The City of Learning". This cultural city boasts a wide variety of interesting sites, including Rhodes University, historical early settler architecture and monuments. Overnight in Grahamstown.

Day 2: After breakfast, depart for King William's Town, established in 1826. After various wars between the British Settlers and the Xhosa, the town developed into a prosperous trade centre for the regional tribes. Overnight in King William's Town.

Day 3: After breakfast, depart for the beautiful village of Hogsback, situated on the slopes of the Amatole Mountains. There are large tracts of indigenous forest with 4 beautiful waterfalls, where the rich variety of bird life includes parrot and Loerie. In windy conditions, the Kettle Spout Waterfall arches up in a feathery plume some 9m high. Overnight in Hogsback.

Day 4: Depart from Hogsback and travel back to Port Elizabeth via Fort Beaufort.

5 Day Wild Coast Pondo Walking Safari (See Annex 9 for rates)

Back to Contents

This true wilderness trail is for the nature lover, birding enthusiast and the adventurous. The terrain is spectacular, but fairly strenuous. Hikers will be based at a beautifully revamped River Lodge, in the heart of the Ponderland Park, situated on the coast. Hikers walk out daily with a trained local guide.

Routing: East London - Wild Coast - East London.

Itinerary:

Day 1: On arrival in East London, depart for the Lodge either by self-drive or a transfer (not included). Settle in, relax and enjoy the ambiance of the River Lodge.

Day 2: 13 km Illityelentaka. This relatively short walk takes hikers south along the coast, returning inland via isolated villages where you will meet the friendly Pondo folk who live in these areas. The views are spectacular and the small remote white sandy beaches offer an opportunity for a quick swim. Enjoy the solitude of this paradise.

Day 3: 22 km Waterfall Bluff. We recommend an early start for this trail. The route is across beautiful unspoiled beaches, up an escarpment and along the cliff top with magnificent views. Although it is strenuous, it's a one-way walk and the magnificent views and frequent sightings of dolphins & whales (in season) is a rich reward. Hikers reach a waterfall that cascades into the sea. After crossing the Mhlankulu River there is an opportunity to swim in the pristine river pool. In the late afternoon the sight of the River Lodge and a cold beer will be a welcome sight.

Day 4: 14 km Magwa Falls. This trail leads hikers away from the coast, up a valley, through a section of natural forest before climbing up an escarpment. Before reaching the magnificent Magwa waterfall, hikers will walk through a section of tea plantations offering magical views and an insight into the daily lives of the families living in these remote hills. Hotel Management will collect hikers from the falls, visiting two more waterfalls en route back to the hotel. The trail on this day may be substituted for a wilderness/forest trail, at the hiker's choice.

Day 5: Return to East London for your onward bound flight (flight not included).

7 Day Cultural Tour (See Annex 9 for rates)

6 Day 4 x 4 Wilderness trail (See Annex 10 for rates)

Back to Contents

This guided tour takes you off the beaten track along roads less travelled, through lush indigenous forests and wildlife viewing domains in and around the famous Kruger National Park.

Itinerary:

Day 1: Depart early morning from Johannesburg, travelling through rural South Africa to the Drakensberg Mountains. Use the scenic Ivory Route Trail in to the mountains to where your overnight stop is at a traditional Camp in "ethnic styled rondavels" with communal ablutions. Distance covered is 450km and driving time is approximately 8 hours.

Day 2: After breakfast depart by following one of the most scenic off-road trails to be found in South Africa! Descend through an indigenous forest via a natural gorge while crossing a mountain stream several times on your way down. Upon reaching the valley below, proceed via gravel and tar roads to the tented trail camp situated in the Manyeleti Game Reserve ("Big 5" country!). The evening around the campfire with the African night sounds of predators is guaranteed to keep you spellbound! Accommodation is provided in "dome" style tents equipped with camp beds, and communal ablutions. Distance covered is 250km and driving time is approximately 6 hours.

Day 3: This morning you enter the Kruger National Park and onto Satara camp with its rustic charm. The bush is relatively open and the wildlife plentiful. The camp itself has a rustic charm and daytime bird-life is prolific. Late afternoon you depart for a night game drive on an open game-viewing vehicle with ranger and tracker. Accommodation will be in comfortable rondavels. Dine at the restaurant (own account). Distance covered is approximately 250km and drive time is 4 hours.
